

Trend-In

Since love is in the air, neutrals can be a nice switch, however, a mix of cool colours plus white will add the much needed life into your decor, this February

Renowned designer duo Prateek Jain and Gautam Seth have unveiled a light installation called Caravan that is a combination of twenty new forms of light designs. Made entirely of brass, each form is a shamanic totem symbol. Spirit guides of birds (eagle, peacock) onto animals (eagles, tiger, wolf, monkey) along with plants and trees coming together - each a unique symbol of healing, power, raw energy, wisdom, living in harmony, beauty or messengers of joy.
